G. A. R. ATTENTION—The regular meeting of Owens Post, G. A. R., would occur Wednesday, the 17th, but owing to the fair is postponed till Wednesday, the 24th. Let all comrades take notice and be at Post on the 24th.

A PHOENIX CONTESTANT—Mrs. Elizabeth McCrea, 1620 W. Jefferson street, Phoenix, has entered the "Beauty and Brains" contest being conducted by the Photoplay Magazine in conjunction with the World Film Corporation.

EARLY BIRDS—It was hardly sun up yesterday morning when several Phoenix citizens thronged the fair grounds to catch the first glimpse of the eight mermaids whose coming had been announced. They were desirous of seeing them arise from the water, where they were supposed to have reposed during the night, and make their toilets.

THE MIAMI POSTMASTER—Hon. Thomas Feeney, postmaster of Miami arrived in the city yesterday and will remain during fair week. Mr. Feeney is a member of the constitutional convention, one of the most active members, and the leader of the intransigents, who had more to do with the making up of the constitution than any other element.

BILLY GRAHAM IN TOWN—Hon. W. J. Graham, member of the house of representatives of Cochise county, is in the city as a visitor to the fair, and probably for the purposes, not remote from politics.

LET THE STATE FAIR GO ON—No territorial or state fair was ever pulled off in Arizona without the presence of Joe Prochaska of Globe. Mr. Prochaska is again on the ground so that the fair may be opened this morning with the confidence of the management in the success of it.

AN ELOQUENT SPEAKER—The managers of the "lecture course" being given at the High school auditorium were most fortunate in securing Rev. Dr. M. S. Hughes for one address. He is known from the Pacific to the Atlantic as an eloquent, instructive and entertaining speaker. None who may hear him Tuesday night will go away disappointed, and all who fail to hear him will miss a rich treat. Dr. Hughes will be the guest of General and Mrs. Sampson when in the city, of course he will visit the fair.

SCHOOL EXHIBIT MOST COMPREHENSIVE EVER

One of the interesting buildings at the fair will be the main building, where the judging in the educational department will be going on. The judges have not been announced but they will be known by their work when it is finished.

The educational department this year is the greatest by all odds that has ever been gathered together under one roof in Arizona and is the result of the hard and consistent work of Mrs. McNeill and her assistants of that department. There are exhibits from nearly every school district in the state, and some of the county exhibits will be amazing from every viewpoint.

STATE DENTAL MEETING.—The seventh annual session of the Arizona State Dental association will be held in this city on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. The meetings to be held in the office of Dr. Shackelford at 11 West Adams street. About twenty-five or thirty members are expected to be present. The convention will close with a smoker on Friday evening.

DEATH OF MISS GRIFFIN.—Helen Winnie Griffin, invalid daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Griffin of 521 N. Second street, died at 7:30 Sunday morning at the age of 17 years. She had been an invalid from an early age, the result of infantile paralysis. For the past six years she has been confined to her room, and her death was not unexpected. Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Monday morning from the family residence.

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD.—The meeting of the W. O. W. Monday evening at the W. O. W. hall promises to be one of unusual interest. The lodge expects a number of visiting sovereigns from various parts of the state. The Glendale degree team has promised to come with their new uniforms and put on the work during the initiation ceremonies. Miss Nellie Trotter, member of the Woodmen Circle, will render a piano solo. The W. O. W. male quartet will render a few selections.

AFTER SEVENTEEN YEARS.—James Letson of Bisbee arrived in town yesterday from Outman, where he acquired an interest in one of the properties there. Mr. Letson has for many years been profitably interested in mining in the Warren district and elsewhere in Cochise county. When he passed through Phoenix on his way to Outman he saw the city for the first time in seventeen years and he saw many things that were not visible when he was here last.

TEMPE WOMAN'S CLUB.—The literary department of the Tempe Woman's club held its regular meeting last Friday afternoon at Mrs. A. B. Clark's, with Mrs. Wm. Strong, chairman, presiding. Sixteen were present and responded to roll call by a quotation from Washington Irving. An interesting paper on "modern song writers" was read by Mrs. Wm. Goodman. Mrs. Roundtree read the "Awakening of Rip Van Winkle" after which a paper by Mrs. Wm. Strong on "The pioneer period of literature 1700-1850" which all pronounced excellent. Light refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Clark, and a social time was enjoyed before the time of departure, which came all too soon.

WANT STORES CLOSED.—At a meeting of the board of governors of the Merchants and Manufacturers' association held on Friday afternoon of last week, it was recommended that all stores close on Thursday at twelve o'clock and remain closed for the rest of the day in order that the employees might attend the state fair.

DEPARTMENT OF ART CREDITABLE DISPLAY

Ladies in Charge Being Assisted by Well known Artists

Benjamin Brown, the California artist who is one of the judges of the Arizona art exhibition, passed Saturday and yesterday at the fair and is enthusiastic in his praise of the initial exhibition in this state.

Mr. Brown demonstrated his confidence in Arizona and in an exhibition for an inspiration and education of her people by aiding in every possible way toward making it a success. Through his efforts a most creditable loan collection invites the criticism of the art lover, and his suggestions have been invaluable to the committee in charge.

Mr. Brown expressed his pleasure in the gallery. The arrangement and lighting he declared excellent and his comments on the work of the local exhibitors was encouraging to the say the least. One of his own pictures adds to the interest and the worth of the exhibition.

Serving with him as judges, are Kate Cory and Marjorie Thomas. It is greatly regretted that Miss Cory is not an exhibitor. Her Indian studies would be a valuable addition. Miss Thomas, who received honorable mention at the Woman's club exhibition last season, is the third judge, and has a number of paintings on exhibition as has also Jessie Benton Evans of Chicago, whose aid and encouragement to the art department of the Woman's club last winter resulted in broadening its study and work.

In the jury of selection is Mrs. C. P. Ainsworth, Mrs. Roy Thomas, Mrs. Emory Oldaker, Miss May Noble and Miss Fay De Mund, Mrs. Ainsworth is chairman of the committee in charge, the other members being Mrs. W. K. James, secretary; Mrs. Dwight B. Heard, and Mrs. H. B. Wilkinson.

In the gallery a box has been placed where the patron of art might drop a coin for the picture that is to be the nucleus of an Arizona art gallery. The children of the city have contributed to the fund and the art department of the Woman's club of which she was an active member, has contributed $5.00 to the memory of the late Mrs. W. C. Foster.

DECEMBER FOOD EXHIBIT.—Word was received yesterday from Fred H. Sears, manager of the Phoenix Public Market, who is now on the coast, that arrangements for a pure food exhibit to be held in the market in December, are progressing nicely. It is expected that more than one hundred nationally advertised companies will have exhibits here. Some of these will be sent here direct from the San Francisco exposition while others will come from San Diego, or will be made up especially for the Phoenix show. Sears expects to return in a few days and will then be in a position to announce the exact scope of this new venture.
